Ames Services Receives BSCAI Image Award
March 23, 2009
For Immediate Release

Ames Services LTD., one of Central Pennsylvania's leading janitorial companies, has been awarded the Building Service Contractors Association International (BSCAI) Image Award for Best Company Newsletter in the Mid- Size Company category. Presented at the 2009 Annual Convention & Trade Show in Chicago, this award recognizes companies who have excelled in enhancing the image of their businesses through printed materials.

Ames Services, LTD. generates a quarterly newsletter named the Ames Review. This newsletter serves both employees and clients. Each issue is mailed to all clients and employees.

Ames Services Resource and Marketing Manager, Dianne Mason, has a knack for making this quarterly newsletter unique to Ames Services and the industry. Dianne enjoys being creative in the production of the Ames Review as well as all promotional pieces. The entire management team is excited about this award and congratulates Dianne.

The image award was presented to Mark Cheyney, President of Ames Services LTD.

Also attending the 2009 BSCAI Annual Convention and Trade Show were Josephine Ames, CEO of Ames Services, and Nichole Menzel, General Manager. This 3 day event consisted of a wide range of educational seminars and over 50 exhibitor booths showcasing the latest in cutting edge products and services. Keynote speakers included Chip Conley, Founder of Joie de Vivre Hospitality , and Mike Mullane, NASA astronaut, discussing the fundamentals of teamwork and how to better build relationships with employees. Within this event were various demonstrations on cleaning techniques and equipment. Josephine, Mark and Nichole all agree that this event was very informative and look forward to attending again next year.
