Local Businessman Appointed to Building Service Contractors Association International Welcomes New Member to the Board of Directors

CHICAGO – Building Service Contractors Association International (BSCAI), the trade association of the building service industry, announced today that it has elected William E. Ames (Bill), CBSE to serve on its Board of Directors taking effect January 23, 2007.

Ames joins BSCAI with extensive background in the building services industry. Serving as COO of Ames Services, LTD, a provider of diversified services to both commercial and residential clients in south central Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware which generated $3 million in 2006, Ames joins the board prepared to tackle the demands of the ever-changing industry.

“We are very excited to welcome Bill to BSCAI,” stated John Ezzo, president of BSCAI. “He will be a great asset to the association and will provide valuable industry insight. Bill has a rich background in building services and will contribute his experience and knowledge to the entire leadership team and association.”

Building on Ames industry experience, he is also an avid volunteer in his community and contributes his experience to various groups. With a bachelor’s and master’s degree in Industrial Arts, Ames has served 30 years in public education as an industrial arts teacher, coach and administrator. Among other volunteer activities, Ames serves as the Sea Scout Leader for his local yacht club, is Chairman of the Fall Classics Festival in Charlestown, Maryland, is a founding member of the Palmyra Area Business Association and is currently serving a six-year term as Township Supervisor in his hometown, Township of South Londonderry.

Ames Services, LTD, founded by Ames’ wife, Josephine, in Annville and Mount Joy, Pa., employs nearly 85 people. It specializes in providing residential and commercial cleaning services, building and grounds maintenance, floor coverings sales and installation, laundry services, fire and water restoration and painting. Bill Ames joined his wife in 1987 as a part-time employee and has worked his way to serving as COO.

About BSCAI

Founded in 1965, BSCAI has become the trade association of the building service industry, representing a worldwide network of more than 2,000 member companies from across the U.S. and 30 other countries who provide cleaning, facility maintenance, and other related services to building owners and managers. The association provides educational programs, publications, video training programs, seminars, and networking opportunities, all developed specifically for the building service contracting industry.
